Dear Parents,

Congratulations to all of our year six students who were confirmed on the weekend. It was a very special day in their lives and a fantastic celebration. Thanks to Jenny Cassar, Michelle Edmanson, Tara Todisco, Diana Jans, Emily D’Sylva (Sacramental Coordinator) and everyone else who was involved in the preparation of the candidates. A very special thanks also to Bishop Mark Edwards for confirming the children, they were blessed to have Bishop Mark as their celebrant.

Last term I wrote about how as a school we are exploring Choice Theory as a common language to understand and talk about behaviour. You would recall I detailed the car as a metaphor for behaviour and as an easy way for students to verbalise what they are feeling. I also wrote about the Seven Deadly Habits and Seven Caring Habits when forming and maintaining relationships. We are still in the embryonic stages in regards to our whole school understanding, however, you may have already heard your child talk about ‘driving their car’.

Choice Theory explains how and why we make the choices that determine the course of our lives. It states that all we do is behave, that almost all behaviour is chosen, and that we are driven by our genes to satisfy five basic needs – survival, love & belonging, power, freedom and fun. In practice, the most important need is love and belonging, as closeness and connectedness with the people we care about is a requisite for satisfying all of our basic needs. Choice Theory is offered to replace external control with internal control (extrinsic motivation with intrinsic motivation). We understand that coercion, a punishing psychology, is destructive to relationships.

Internal control presumes that:

- All behaviour is chosen, is purposeful and has consequences.
- We are doing the best we can at the time.
- There is a better way but we might not know it yet.
- There is often a more effective way to meet our needs.
- All problems have a solution.
- Most problems are relationship problems.
- Behaviour is a combination of feeling, thinking, doing and physiology (body talk).
- It is difficult to change our feelings and physiology but we can change our thinking and acting.
- It takes time to learn a better way, and you have to want to do it.
- The 7 deadly habits damage relationships and the 7 caring habits build relationships.
- We are in control and therefore we are responsible for our choices.

Listed next are the ten rational beliefs and ten irrational beliefs. These are handy to keep in mind when assisting your child through their development, particularly with establishing and maintaining relationships.
TEN RATIONAL BELIEFS

1. I want to be loved or liked, and approved of, by some of the people in my life. I will feel disappointed or lonely when that doesn't happen, but, I can cope with those feelings, and I can take constructive steps to make and keep better relationships.

2. I want to do some things well, most of the time. Like everybody, I will occasionally fail or make a mistake. Then I will feel bad, but I can cope with that, and I can take constructive steps to do better next time.

3. It is sad that most of us do bad things from time to time, and some people do a lot of bad things. But making myself very upset won't change that.

4. It is disappointing when things aren't how I would like them to be, but I can cope with that. Usually I can take constructive steps to make things more as I would like them to be, but, if I can't, it doesn't help me to exaggerate my disappointment.

5. My problem(s) may be influenced by factors outside my control, but my thoughts and actions also influence my problem(s), and they are under my control.

6. Worrying about something that might go wrong won't stop it from happening; it just makes me unhappy now! I can take constructive steps to prepare for possible problems, and that's as much as anyone can do. So I won't dwell on the future now.

7. Facing difficult situations will make me feel bad at the time, but I can cope with that. Putting off problems doesn't make them any easier; it just gives me longer to worry about them.

8. It is good to get support from others when I want it, but the only person I really need to rely on is myself.

9. My problem(s) may have started in some past events, but what keeps it (them) going are my thoughts and actions, and they are under my control.

10. It is sad to see people in trouble, but I don't help them by making myself miserable. I can cope with feeling sad, and sometimes I can take constructive steps to help them.

TEN POPULAR IRRATIONAL BELIEFS

1. I must be loved, or at least liked, and approved of by every significant person I meet.

2. I must be completely competent make no mistakes, and achieve in every possible way, if I am to be worthwhile.

3. Some people are bad, wicked, and evil and they should be blamed and punished.

4. It is dreadful, nearly the end of the world, when things aren't how I would like them to be.

5. Human unhappiness, including my own, is caused by factors outside my control, so little can be done about it.

6. If something is dangerous, unpleasant, or frightening, I should worry about it a great deal.

7. It is easier to put off something difficult or unpleasant than it is to face up to it.

8. I need someone stronger than myself to depend on.

9. My problem(s) were caused by event(s) in my past, and that's why I have my problem(s) now.

10. I should be upset by other people's problems and difficulties.

Grandparents Day

It is wonderful that we are getting such a great response to our Grandparents Day on Friday the 6th of November (9.00am-11.30am). For our organisation it is important that we know how many people will be attending. Please fill in the attendance return slip with this newsletter if you have not yet done so.

2016 Planning

We are well underway with our planning and organisation for 2016. An accurate indication of student numbers assists us enormously. If you know that your circumstances are changing could you please inform the Office. We also have a waiting list and if you know you are leaving we can then offer that spot to somebody else.

CRICKET CLINIC - YEAR 1-6

Over the past week students have been participating in Cricket Clinics during their P.E. Lessons, learning skills related to the four main parts of cricket - fielding, bowling, batting and wicket keeping. The Year 1/2 students enjoyed the clinic on Tuesday practising skills and playing a game where everyone was given the chance to bat and field. Year 5/6 students participated in clinics today. Jack, our coach, demonstrated a fun way for the students to refine their bowling technique - "Bunny ears to hold the ball", "Bite the apple", "Small star", "Big star", "Rock star", "One, Two, Three then over". Many of the students were surprised at how great their bowling was using this technique. Following the skill part of the session some classes played a game of T20 cricket where everyone was given the chance to bat, bowl and field. Other classes played a game of Rapid Fire where students applied their batting and fielding skills.

The clinics are being offered by Cricket Victoria and are promoting the opportunity for students to participate in the T20 Blast Cricket Program and MILO In2Cricket. Posters are displayed around the school outlining details of registration for this Program or visit playcricket.com.au/T20blast or in2cricket.com.au. The MILO cricket is more suited to Year 1-4 and the T20 is for Year 5/6 and more experienced players.

All students have been given a Melbourne Stars activity booklet. This includes a cricket quiz to be completed online which could lead to Trinity winning a day at the MCG seeing Melbourne Stars play in a T20 game.

This week it was the Prep’s turn to work with the iPad Cart and myself. We explored how to use the App ‘Explain everything’. In Preps they are learning about Addition and Subtraction, we brainstormed all they knew about friends of 10 and then used the app to show how they worked out their math problems. We also had a chance to play a great Maths game ‘Hungry Fish’. We had a great time.

ABSENCE FROM SCHOOL

In the case of illness a phone call in the morning on the day they are absent.

If you are going on holidays or your child will be away for an extended period you must advise in writing BEFORE you leave. Thank you.

All parents/Guardians wishing to help in the classroom, canteen or attend excursions MUST have completed the PARENT HELPER WORKSHOP and hold a current WORKING WITH CHILDREN CARD.

Further details are available from the school office. All parent/guardian helpers must sign in at the office before proceeding to the classrooms. Your current Working with Children card must be displayed at all times when working in the classrooms and attending excursions.

TRINITY CAR PARK

- For greater safety and visibility, we are requesting that all drivers reverse park into the marked bays.
- Thank you all who use the pedestrian crossing area. You are demonstrating to your children correct road safety practices. Once children cross the pedestrian crossing into the parking area, they, for their safety, need to be placed into vehicles promptly. The car park is NOT a meeting area.
- The lane around the edge of the car park (closest to the oval) are for vehicles waiting to pick children up from the Pick-up Zone ONLY.
- The two parking bays closest to the office path are the PICK-UP ZONES. These are NO STANDING zones. If your children are not ready to get into your car as you pull up to the pick-up zone, you must continue on and rejoin the end of the pick-up queue.
- There is NO RIGHT TURN when exiting the car park. All vehicles must turn left for the safety of others and to maintain traffic flow.
- THE GATES CLOSE AT 9.00am AND RE-OPEN AT 3.00pm. Occasionally they might re-open slightly later due to school activities.

Thank you for your patience and consideration of others.
WE PRAY FOR: The grandfather of Aiden Harrington (6E) who died recently; all who are ill, having tests, surgery or treatment.

Today is Children’s Mission Day and also Kidsafe Day. At Staff prayer this morning the staff viewed a short clip which many of the children have seen in relation to Children’s Mission Day. You might like to ask your child/children if they have seen it and what are some of the differences between their lives and the lives of children who live in Madagascar. As for the ‘Kidsafe Day” a little discussion at the tea table around safety would not go amiss either.

LOST PROPERTY BOX: There are quite a number of jackets and jumpers in this box at present all of which are unmarked. So if your child is missing his/her jacket or jumper you may find it in here! Parents please name your children’s jackets and jumpers then it is much easier to return them to their rightful owner. Thank You to those families who continue to send in uniform pieces that are clean and in good condition. They are very much appreciated.

PARISH FETE IS ON Saturday 7th November 10am – 4pm: a date for your diaries. Thank you to those Families who have returned their Raffle tickets for the Parish fete. There will be rides (wristbands on sale after each Mass - $25.00 early bird price/ $30.00 on the day /$5.00 a ride without a wristband), Spinning wheel, stalls galore (support the craft Christmas stall from our school Craft Group – this includes stocking fillers for the children and craft activity sets for $1.00), plant stall (succulents galore thanks to Mrs Cahill’s Dad, herbs, rhubarb, pelargoniums, 18 month roses,) white elephant stall (in the Keogh Room), games galore, entertainment on the soccer pitch, devonshire tea/coffee (for that rest when the children have run you ragged), International food stalls – Indonesian, Indian, Tongan, Philippines, Aussie B.B.Q. AND SOOOOOOO MUCH MORE! Come along and help us build the parish centre. THE PARISH FETE IS FROM 10AM-4PM ON SATURDAY 7TH NOVEMBER.

PLAYGROUP: As we again have 27 children on our books there will be no more enrolments for this year. This is for safety reasons.

WHITE ELEPHANT STALL AT THE PARISH FETE. If you are having a “spring clean” and have goods in GOOD CONDITION (NOT CLOTHES) you might consider taking them along to the Keogh Room on the weekend of 31st Oct/1st Nov. for the White Elephant Stall. PLEASE DO NOT JUST GET RID OF YOUR RUBBISH...leave this for the Council Garbage pick-up.

ON THE PARENTS NOTICEBOARD: A media report from ‘Catholic religious Australia.

This weekend we hear once more from the Gospel of Mark. (Do you realise we have only 4 more weekends before we begin ADVENT?) We are presented with an episode about ‘blindness’ and ‘faith’. Bartimaeus was a persistent beggar – he continued to call out to Jesus for healing even when he was told to keep quiet by the crowd. He was rewarded in that he regained his sight – OR did he begin to see differently ? All of us have had occasions to ‘see things differently’ and to change our behaviour because of this! LORD JESUS, SLOW ME DOWN SO THAT I MAY SEE DIFFERENTLY: THE STRANGER TO OUR SHORES LOOKING FOR WELCOME IN OUR LAND; THE NEIGHBOUR WHO IS STRUGGLING AND WHO COULD DO WITH A WORD/ACTION OF COMFORT; THE PARENT WHO COULD DO WITH THE OFFER OF TAKING HER CHILD TO SCHOOL WHEN SHE IS UNWELL; THE BEGGAR ON OUR STREETS...

Anxiety has a way of making everyone feel helpless - those experiencing anxiety and those trying to help. It's hard to know what to say when a child becomes overwhelmed with anxiety, but it's most important to be a strong, steady influence. You may not be able to take their anxiety away, but your emotional support and your calmness makes a difference.

Children take their cues from their parents so your trust that they can cope when they become overly anxious will send a powerful message that they'll come out the other side safely. The language you use will convey your trust and also offer your child the comfort they need to feel safe, as well as the courage to find their own solutions to their anxiety.

When you see anxiety take hold here are some things that you can say that will help your child cope:

“Your okay. I'm here and I won't be going anywhere.”

Such statements indicate warmth, safety and comfort. Your child may not believe you straight away but that's okay; your presence will get the message across.

“You don't have to do anything right now. Just breathe.”

A big part of the stress of anxiety comes when children don't know what to do. They don't have to fight the feeling of anxiety, but let it pass. The less children fight anxiety, the more likely it is that the feeling will go.

“Let's go for a walk and see if we can take some big breaths.”

Physical activity is the best antidote to an anxiety attack as it helps burn up the adrenaline that prepares a child's body to fight or take flight. Try to help them take some strong breaths while they walk, which will be easier if they've practised when they aren't anxious. Practise by breathing in to the count of three, holding for one, breathing out for three and holding for one.

“Take some big, deep breaths. I'll do it with you.”

Anxiety comes from the fight or flight response when the brain perceives a threat. It doesn't matter whether the threat is real or not, the brain thinks and acts as if it's true, leading to tenseness, hyperventilation and confused thinking. Breathing triggers the relaxation response which, like the fight or flight response, is hardwired in all of us.

When children are calm explore different approaches to empower them to better manage their anxiety. You might say:

“I'd like to understand what your worry feels like for you. Can you teach me?”

The ability to accurately identify a feeling when it occurs is at the heart of emotional intelligence so encourage your child to verbalise what their anxiety feels like. Greater self-awareness increases your child's ability to manage their feelings.

“What would you say to a friend who was going through what you go through?”

Invite your child to take a more objective look at their own anxiety to help them gain a different perspective and level of understanding. This approach also gives parents a greater insight into what a child is going through.

“Your brain is amazing. Every time you breathe through your anxious feelings you're teaching your brain how to manage your anxiety.”

Brains have an amazing capacity to adapt and learn new ways of coping. By helping your child understand that he is, in effect, training his brain to better respond to anxiety you empower your child to positively manage their feelings.

Help children manage their difficult emotions, including anxiety, by validating their feelings and encouraging them to experiment with different ways of coping. Encourage kids to come up with their own solutions when anxiety threatens to overcome them. Kids are usually adept at solving their own problems when they have loving, supporting and positive adults in their lives.
OLHC FETE—7th NOVEMBER from 10am to 4pm
For our Parish Fete we are looking for volunteers to help us with different tasks like setting up stalls, helping with games and food stalls etc. If you would like to volunteer one or two hours of your time please fill in your details on the sign-up sheets for volunteers at the back of the church. Thank you to those who brought in mystery jars, however a lot more are needed. Please encourage your children to make up some mystery jars and drop them at the back of the church. Thank you.

WHITE ELEPHANT STALL
Now is the time to clean out those cupboards of all unwanted but saleable goods. We need anything you have, books, crockery, cutlery, plates, mugs, vases, nicknacks, pots, pans, statuettes, jewellery, toys etc —anything at all as long as it is NOT broken or damaged. Unfortunately we cannot take electrical goods as we do not have an electrician who can certify these goods. The Keogh Room will be open before all masses on the weekend prior to the fete so that you can drop off your donations. PLEASE NOTE: Goods will not be accepted on the day of the fete.

MARY MacKILLOP PRIMARY SCHOOL
